The following Questions and Answers pertain to Project No. RE01-11, Real Estate Representative Services:

1. The RFP calls for us to answer in four main areas for the technical proposal however only three areas where listed. 1. Experience 2. Organizational capability 3. Conflicts of Interest. Was the fourth area to be the project approach section?

   No, there are only three (3) main areas for the technical proposal which are listed in the question above.

2. Please provide an overview of CUNY’s portfolio by borough and anticipated needs over the next 3 years.

   That information will be provided to the selected firms.

3. Regarding Scope of Services (Sec. II(A)(6)). There is a reference to working with CUNY’s architect and attorneys to finalize leases. Does CUNY have its own architect in place, or are proposers expected/encouraged to include such a firm as a sub-contractor in their proposal?

   CUNY has a staff of architects. CUNY may request, but not require, the selected Real Estate Representatives to recommend a(n) architect(s).

4. Regarding Proposal Format - Experience (Sec. III(A)(2)(a)). The first bullet requests “a list of successful transactions that the members of the Prime Project Team have negotiated in the last two years and the material business terms thereof.” Given the Firm’s obligations of confidentiality to its clients, how much detail of material business terms is expected?

   A general description is required. CUNY does not expect proposers to divulge confidential information.

5. Regarding Proposal Format - Conflicts of Interest (Sec. III(A)(2)(c)). CUNY is requesting full disclosure of property within the City in which any principal, officer or employee has any interest, which is further described as all or part of a fee, leasehold, mortgage, broker, agency or other interest. This can be interpreted broadly to mean disclosure of any or all of our current assignments. Can this request be clarified?

   The individuals representing CUNY should not have a personal interest in the property. Individual conflicts must be disclosed. However, firms need not disclose current assignments.
