President of John Jay College of Criminal Justice

The Board of Trustees of The City University of New York (CUNY) and the John Jay College of Criminal Justice Presidential Search Committee invite nominations and applications for the position of President of John Jay College.

John Jay College of Criminal Justice, a senior college of the City University of New York, is an internationally recognized leader in educating for justice, committed to the advancement of justice and just societies. The College’s liberal arts curriculum equips students to pursue advanced study and meaningful, rewarding careers in the public, private and non-profit sectors. Professional and academic graduate programs introduce students to foundational and newly emerging fields and prepare them for advancement within their chosen professions. Located steps from Lincoln Center at the cultural heart of New York City, the College offers bachelors and master’s degrees and participates in the doctoral programs of the Graduate Center of the City University of New York. John Jay College is also recognized for serving a broadly diverse student population of more than 13,000 undergraduate and 2,000 graduate students. Under the leadership of its fourth president, Jeremy Travis, John Jay College has experienced unprecedented faculty hiring; an expansion of its curricular offerings; a robust increase in its research funding and profile; and the opening in 2011 of a new 600,000 square foot building complete with a black-box theatre, state-of-the-art lab space for students and faculty, a moot courtroom, and a variety of virtual learning settings.

The President serves as the chief academic and administrative officer, reporting to the Chancellor and working within policy set by the CUNY Board of Trustees. Preferred qualifications for the position include:

- An earned doctorate or professional equivalent;
- A demonstrated record of senior-level management, preferably in a higher education setting;
- A track record of securing and a desire to secure financial support from various sources, including private donors, foundations and corporations;
- An ability to engage effectively with multiple constituencies, including those on campus, at other CUNY campuses and alumni, the community, and governmental bodies;
- A commitment to educating and fostering an inclusive and diverse community;
- Demonstrated leadership skills in recruiting, retaining and inspiring talented faculty, staff and students; and
- A commitment to the College’s mission to provide students with a rigorous liberal arts and professional education that prepares them for ethical leadership, global citizenship and engaged service, enabling them to become fierce advocates for justice.

Shelly Weiss Storbeck, Pharen Bowman-Crooks, and Anne Koellhoffer of Storbeck/Pimentel & Associates are assisting the search committee. Questions, requests for information, nominations, and applications should be sent electronically to:
Shelly Weiss Storbeck, Managing Partner
Pharen Bowman-Crooks, Associate
Anne Koellhoffer, Associate

JohnJayPresident@storbecksearch.com

For more information, please visit the John Jay College of Criminal Justice’s home page at http://www.jjay.cuny.edu/.

CUNY encourages people with disabilities, minorities, veterans and women to apply. At CUNY, Italian Americans are also included among our protected groups. Applicants and employees will not be discriminated against on the basis of any legally protected category, including sexual orientation or gender identity. EEO/AA/Vet/Disability Employer.