THE SALARY: The current minimum salary is $36,566 per annum. This rate is subject to change.

HOW TO APPLY: You may apply and schedule a reservation for a test date if you believe you meet the requirements in the "How to Qualify" section. To apply and schedule yourself for this exam you must do so through the Online Application System (OASys) at www.nyc.gov/examsforjobs. In order to apply and schedule yourself for this exam, you must have an OASys account. Once you create a new OASys account, you may submit an application and schedule yourself for this exam. However, all new OASys accounts require verification to ensure the accuracy of candidate information. Some new OASys accounts may require up to 24 hours to be reviewed and resolved during normal business hours. An email notification will be sent to you if additional information is required. Please keep this information and the application period deadline in mind when creating your account.

Follow the onscreen application instructions for making a reservation and electronically submitting your application and payment, and completing any required information. A unique and valid email address is required to apply online. Several internet service providers, including but not limited to Google, Yahoo!, AOL, Outlook.com, and Mail.com offer free email. The following methods of payment are acceptable: major credit card, bank card associated with a bank account, or a prepaid debit card with a credit card logo which you may purchase online or at various retail outlets.

If you are receiving or participating in certain forms of public assistance/benefits/programs, or are a veteran, you may qualify to have the application fee waived. For more information on eligibility for a fee waiver and documentation requirements, visit the Fee Waiver FAQ on the Online Application System at https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEE/oasys/FAQFeeWaiver.aspx.

If you do not have access to a computer, you may apply and schedule a reservation for a test date online at one of the DCAS’ Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. The centers will be open Monday through Saturday from 9:00 AM to 5:00 PM:

For questions regarding scheduling and rescheduling refer to the Reservation and Rescheduling FAQs at https://a856-eeexams.nyc.gov/OLEE/SeatReservation/FAQReservation.aspx.

The administration of the test is subject to change in the event of an unforeseen occurrence. If you wish to verify the test date and time, you may call the DCAS Interactive Voice Response (IVR) system at (212) 669-1357 two hours before the test session you wish to attend to hear if the test is not being administered at that time. The recorded message will be heard after the "Thank you for calling" greeting. If there is no message regarding testing at the Centers, it means that testing will be administered as scheduled for that day.

Special Circumstances Guide: This guide is located on the DCAS website at www.nyc.gov/html/dcas/downloads/pdf/misc/pdf_special_circumstances_guide.pdf and available at the DCAS Computer-based Testing & Applications Centers. This guide gives important information about requesting an alternate test date because of religious observance or a special test accommodation for disability, claiming Veterans’ or Legacy credit, and notifying DCAS of a change in your mailing address. Follow all instructions on the Special Circumstances Guide that pertain to you when you complete your "Application for Examination." If you plan to request special testing accommodations due to disability, do not apply for an exam and self-schedule through OASys. Refer to the Special Test Accommodations Section at the end of this Notice of Examination for instructions on how to apply.

You will be given the test before we review your qualifications. You are responsible for determining whether or not you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting your application. If you are marked “Not Qualified,” your application fee will not be refunded.
HOW TO QUALIFY:

Education and Experience Requirements: There are no formal education or experience requirements.

Residency Requirement: New York City residency is not required for this position.

Driver License Requirement: By the time you are appointed to this position, you must have a motor vehicle driver license valid in the State of New York. If you have moving violations, license suspension(s) or an accident record, you may be disqualified. This license must be maintained for the duration of your employment.

Medical Requirement: CUNY guidelines have been established for the position of Motor Vehicle Operator. Candidates will be examined to determine whether they can perform the essential functions of the position of Motor Vehicle Operator. Where appropriate, a reasonable accommodation will be provided for a person with a disability to enable him or her to take the examination, and/or to perform the essential functions of the job.

Drug Screening Requirement: You must pass alcohol testing and drug screening in order to be appointed. If appointed you will be subjected to random alcohol and drug testing for the duration of your employment.

English Requirement: Candidates must be able to understand and be understood in English.

Proof of Identity: Under the Immigration Reform and Control Act of 1986, you must be able to prove your identity and your right to obtain employment in the United States prior to employment with the City University of New York.

THE TEST: You will be given a multiple-choice test at a computer terminal. Your score on this test will be used to determine your place on an eligible list. You must achieve a score of at least 70% to pass the test. The multiple-choice test may include questions on: rules of the road; defensive driving practices and safety precautions; application of written instructions; communicating information to others; maintaining records and filling out forms; vehicle readiness check; basic equipment check and related safety procedures; planning travel routes; delivery and pickup procedures; loading and unloading procedures; and other related areas.

The test will include questions which may require the use of any of the following abilities:

Written Comprehension: understanding written sentences and paragraphs. Example: A Motor Vehicle Operator (CUNY) may use this ability to understand directions that are written out for them.

Written Expression: using English words or sentences in writing so that others will understand. Example: A Motor Vehicle Operator (CUNY) may use this ability to prepare trip reports.

Memorization: remembering information, such as words, numbers, pictures and procedures. Pieces of information can be remembered by themselves or with other pieces of information. Example: A Motor Vehicle Operator (CUNY) may use this ability to memorize the fastest route to a destination.

Problem Sensitivity: determining when something is wrong or is likely to go wrong. It includes being able to identify the whole problem as well as elements of the problem. Example: A Motor Vehicle Operator (CUNY) may use this ability to plan car maintenance to prevent any possible issues that may arise.

Information Ordering: following a rule correctly or set of rules or actions in a certain order. The rule or set of rules used must be given. The things or actions to be put in order can include numbers, letters, words, pictures, procedures, sentences, and mathematical or logical operations. Example: A Motor Vehicle Operator (CUNY) may use this ability to prioritize work assignments to complete them in an efficient order.

Deductive Reasoning: applying general rules to specific problems to come up with logical answers. It involves deciding if an answer makes sense. Example: A Motor Vehicle Operator (CUNY) may use this ability to troubleshoot problems with a vehicle.

Spatial Orientation: determining where you are in relation to the location of some object or to tell where the object is in relation to you. Example: A Motor Vehicle Operator (CUNY) may use this ability to apply the brakes at the appropriate time to avoid a collision.

THE TEST RESULTS: If you pass the multiple-choice test, your name will be placed in final score order on a CUNY eligible list and you will be given a list number. You will be notified by mail of your test results. If you meet all requirements and conditions, you will be considered for appointment when your name is reached on the CUNY eligible list.

CHANGE OF MAILING AND/OR EMAIL ADDRESS: It is critical that you promptly notify DCAS of any change to your mailing and/or email address. You may miss important information about your exam(s) or consideration for appointment, including important information that may require a response by a specified deadline, if we do not have your correct mailing and/or email address. Change of mailing and/or email address requests submitted to any place other than DCAS, such as your Agency or the United States Postal Service will NOT update your records with DCAS. To update your mailing and/or email address with DCAS, you must submit a change request by mail or in person. Your request must include your full name, social security number, exam title(s), exam number(s), old mailing and/or email address, and your new mailing and/or email address. Your request can be mailed to DCAS Records Room, 1 Centre Street, 14th Floor, New York, NY 10007 or brought in person to the same address Monday through Friday from 9AM to 5PM.
