

Faculty Fellowship Publication Program (FFPP)

Call for Proposals Academic Year 2017-2018

Application Deadline – Friday October 27, 2017

PROGRAM PURPOSE & DESCRIPTION

The Faculty Fellowship Publication Program (FFPP) is sponsored by the Office of the Dean for Recruitment and Diversity in order to advance CUNY's institutional commitment to diversity. This University-wide initiative assists full-time untenured CUNY faculty (assistant professors) in the design and execution of writing projects essential to progress toward tenure. These projects may include research-based scholarly articles for juried journals, books for academic presses and creative writing projects. This signature program provides three credit hours of course release for the spring semester, a writing group, and the guidance of a senior faculty member.

FFPP Proposals are being accepted from eligible faculty in the following disciplines:

- Creative Writing/Film
- Education
- English
- Ethnic and Gender Studies
- Humanities
- Social Sciences

FFPP ELIGIBILITY

The faculty member may not be a past participant. Faculty are welcome to apply to other CUNY mentoring programs, but if accepted to multiple, may participate in only one program.

- Be an untenured assistant professor hired on a tenure-track line, on or between September 2011 and September 2016
- Be reappointed for the current academic year
- Have a doctorate or required terminal degree for teaching in their discipline (e.g., MFA for faculty in creative writing and/or film programs)
