

Faculty Fellowship Publication Program (FFPP)

Call for Proposals 2017-2018

The Faculty Fellowship Publication Program (FFPP) is sponsored by the Office of the Dean for Recruitment and Diversity in order to advance CUNY's institutional commitment to diversity. This University-wide initiative assists full-time untenured CUNY faculty (assistant professors) in the design and execution of writing projects essential to progress toward tenure. These projects may include research-based scholarly articles for juried journals, books for academic presses and creative writing projects. This signature program provides three credit hours of course release for the spring semester, a writing group, and the guidance of a senior faculty member.

Application Deadline October 27, 2017

FACULTY TESTIMONIALS

“The mentor was excellent and supportive. The colleagues in my group were generous and helpful. We will be continuing our work together.”

“I have participated in several different writing groups over the years and none were nearly as impactful as FFPP. The structure of FFPP provided me with truly helpful feedback that supported my writing process and improved my scholarship.”

“My mentor was so supportive and offered incisive feedback throughout the semester. I wish he had been my dissertation advisor! My mentor certainly set the tone for our group meetings, but each of the participants were also incredibly generous and smart. I hope to keep these relationships going for a long time.”

“It was the best experience I have had at CUNY so far.”
