ACTIVISM IN ACADEMIA II

#ActivisminAcademia  #CUNYactivism  #LehmanEnglish

An interdisciplinary, day-long symposium discussing the value of political and apolitical work—in our classrooms, on our campuses, and in our scholarship—as it relates to activism within underrepresented communities.

COORDINATORS: Dhipinder Walia & Olivia Loksing Moy (CUNY-Lehman)

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 2018
10:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m.
The Skylight Room, The CUNY Graduate Center
365 5th Avenue, Room 9100, New York City

FEATURING
“Aquí/Allá: Caribbean Crisis in the Classroom”
“The Controversy over Contextualization: Rethinking Confederate Monuments After Charlottesville”
“25 Years Queer: The CLAGS Archive of CUNY”
A musical performance of works by composer Trevor Weston

PANELS
- 10:00 a.m. Structural Insurrections in Composition and Rhetoric
- 11:30 a.m. On-campus Activism: Protest and Performance
  1:00 p.m. Lunch Reception
- 2:00 p.m. Student Panels: Visibility through Scholarship: Undocumented & Unheard Voices
- 4:00 p.m. Activist Archives and Histories

SPEAKERS
Monika Bhagat-Kennedy (University of Mississippi) • Cristina Pérez Jiménez (Manhattan College)
Jessica Yood (Lehman) • Lisa Blankenship (Baruch) • Jennifer Maloy (Queensborough) • Carmen Kynard (John Jay)
Amaka Okechukwu (George Mason) • Simon Reader (Staten Island)
Nermeen Arastu (CUNY Law School) • Mary Phillips (Lehman) • Trevor Weston (Drew University)
Arlinda Mulosmanaj • Lucero Luna Miranda • Nicholas Santiago • Zoe Fanzo (Lehman)

Please find our full program and more information about our panelists at:
http://cuny.is/activism

Sponsored by the Office of Recruitment and Diversity; the Center for the Humanities at the Graduate Center, CUNY; the Lehman College Department of English; and the Lehman College City and Humanities Program. This symposium was made possible by a Diversity Projects Development Fund grant.