ADVISORY MEMORANDUM

To: College Presidents
From: Sr. Vice Chancellor Frederick P. Schaffer
Re: Reporting Suspected Child Abuse and Maltreatment

This memorandum updates and replaces our 2004 memorandum on the subject of suspected child abuse and maltreatment reporting requirements. On occasion, college officials have consulted the Office of General Counsel in connection with a suspected case of child abuse. A suspected perpetrator of abuse may be the parent or guardian of the child, or a college or related entity employee. The purpose of this memorandum is to describe the obligations of those individuals who are mandated by law to report incidents of abuse, as well as to set forth CUNY’s policy for those employees who are not statutorily mandated reporters.

Social Services Law Section 413 requires that certain individuals must report or cause a report to be made to the New York State central register of child abuse and maltreatment, when they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child coming before them in their professional or official capacity is an abused or maltreated child, or when they have reasonable cause to suspect that a child is an abused or maltreated child where the parent, guardian, custodian or other person legally responsible for such child comes before them in their professional or official capacity and states from personal knowledge facts, conditions or circumstances which, if correct, would render the child an abused or maltreated child.

Individuals who must report such incidents (“mandated reporters”) include, among others: school officials, physicians, registered nurses and registered physician’s assistants, psychologists, social workers, mental health counselors, day care center personnel, summer camp directors, and peace officers.

Any other person who has reasonable cause to believe that a child less than eighteen years of age has been abused or maltreated may report such abuse or maltreatment.

Since most CUNY colleges provide child care and health care facilities, and many run summer camps, have collaborative programs with the New York City Public School System, or otherwise host minors on their campuses, it is appropriate for college employees, in particular staff of child care and health care centers, who come in contact with children in the course of their employment to be aware of their responsibilities under the law.\(^2\)

Definitions

Abused child\(^3\) means a child under eighteen years of age whose parent or other person legally responsible for the child’s care:

(i) inflicts or allows to be inflicted upon such child physical injury by other than accidental means which causes or creates a substantial risk of death, or serious or protracted disfigurement, or protracted impairment of physical or emotional health or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily organ; or

(ii) creates or allows to be created a substantial risk of physical injury to such child by other than accidental means which would be likely to cause death or serious or protracted disfigurement, or protracted impairment of physical or emotional health or protracted loss or impairment of the function of any bodily organ; or

(iii) commits, or allows to be committed a sex offense, as defined in Section 130 of the Penal Law, against such child; allows, permits or encourages such child to engage in any act of promoting prostitution as described in §§ 230.25, 230.30 and 230.32 of the Penal Law; commits any of the acts of incest described in §§ 255.25, 255.26 and 255.27 of the Penal Law; or allows such child to engage in acts or conduct of sexual performance described in Article 263 of the Penal Law.

Maltreated child\(^3\) means a child under eighteen years of age:

(i) whose physical, mental or emotional condition has been impaired or is in imminent danger of becoming impaired as a result of the failure of the parent or other person legally responsible for his care to exercise a minimum degree of care:

(A) in supplying the child with adequate food, clothing, shelter or education in accordance with the provisions of part one of Article 65 of the Education Law, or medical, dental, optometrical or surgical care, though financially able to do so or offered financial or other reasonable means to do so; or

\(^2\) These rules also apply to employees of separately-incorporated related entities of CUNY that provide child care and health care services to the colleges or otherwise come in contact with children in the course of employment.

\(^3\) Social Services Law, § 412 and Family Court Act, § 1012.
in providing the child with proper supervision or guardianship, by unreasonably inflicting or allowing to be inflicted harm, or a substantial risk thereof, including the infliction of excessive corporal punishment; or by misusing a drug or drugs; or by misusing alcoholic beverages to the extent that he loses self-control of his actions; or by any other acts of a similarly serious nature requiring the aid of the Family Court; or

(ii) who has been abandoned, in accordance with the definition and other criteria set forth in subdivision five of Section 384-b of the Social Services Law, by his parents or other person legally responsible for his care; or

(iii) who has had serious physical injury inflicted upon him or her by other than accidental means.

Reporting Procedure

Mandated Reporters. CUNY and CUNY related entity employees who are mandated reporters and who have reasonable cause to suspect that any child is being or has been abused or maltreated by a parent, guardian, CUNY employee, CUNY student or any other third party must make an oral report immediately to the New York State Central Registry (SCR) for Child Abuse and Maltreatment in Albany by telephoning the toll-free number: 1-800-635-1522. In compliance with Social Services Law § 413 and CUNY’s Title IX Protocol 4, mandated reporters must also immediately notify the college’s Director of Public Safety, Title IX Coordinator or Chief Student Affairs Officer, and, in the case of the child care centers, the director of the center as well.

Within 48 hours of the oral report, the mandated reporter must make a written report on Office of Children and Family Services (OCFS) form LDSS-2221-A (copy attached) 5. The report must be mailed to the Administration for Children’s Services (ACS) field office in the borough where the subjects of the report reside.

Copies of the report should also be given to the college’s director of public safety and the Office of General Counsel.

All Others: CUNY and CUNY related entity employees who are not mandated reporters and who have reasonable cause to suspect that a child is being or has been abused or maltreated must immediately notify their college’s Director of Public Safety, Title IX Coordinator or Chief Student Affairs Officer, in compliance with CUNY’s Title IX Protocol.

It may also result in disciplinary action against the employee.
Immunity from Liability and Legal Assistance
