Vetted, Credible Non-Profits Working on the Ground

May 6th, 2015

adhikaar
Strengthening our collective voices

Adhikaar (Based in New York City)
71-7 Woodside Ave,
Woodside, NY 11377
(718) 937-1117
http://adhikaar.org

Raising funds online and offline, and coordinating with volunteers in India to send it to Nepal.

ESG
Environment Support Group - Trust

Environment Support Group
(Environmental, Social Justice and Governance Initiatives)
1572, 36th Cross,
(Opp Ashwini Apartments and Evolving Systems)
100 Feet Ring Road,
Banashankari II Stage,
Bangalore 560070 INDIA
Tel: +91 80 26713559 - 61
Voice/fax: +91 80 26713316
Email: esg@esgindia.org
Web: www.esgindia.org

Mobilizing support for relief and rehabilitation efforts to assist impacted communities. These resources are then channelized through highly credible relief and rehabilitation organizations working in the impacted area.

The world’s largest vegan/vegetarian food relief program

Food for Life

Food for Life Global
Donation Mailbox

Make checks payable to:
Care for Vrindavan Inc.

USA donations Registered 501C-3 Corporation. Federal Tax ID # 73-3078856
Mark on check: To Benefit Food for Life Global

P.O. Box 982
Saratoga Springs NY 12866
Tel: +1 (0)518 587-5700
http://www.ffl.org/en/

Distributing hot meals to over 3,500 earthquake victims to locations including Bhaktapur, one of the hardest hit areas, and Yaacheen, Naagpokhari, Muni Bihari, Decochea, Golmadhi, Jaganath Mandir Trijura-sundari, Maha Laxmi and the Sarada school.
Teams are on the ground in Nepal, providing emergency assistance in response to the April 25 earthquake.

Oxfam International

We are preparing to supply clean water and hygiene equipment to thousands of people in Nepal following a devastating earthquake. Your help now will help us to save lives.