NO. 12. THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK - REIMBURSEMENT FOR EXPENDITURES FOR COUNSEL FOR VICE CHANCELLORS:

WHEREAS, On February 21, 2017, the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York authorized reimbursement to the campus presidents and deans of each college as applicable (“presidents”) for reasonable expenses incurred to retain personal counsel of their choice to represent them at required interviews with the Office of the Inspector General of the State of New York (“IG”); and

WHEREAS, Since that time, the IG has required and continues to require certain current vice chancellors to submit to a recorded interview under oath; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of The City University of New York hereby authorizes reimbursement to University vice chancellors for reasonable expenses incurred to retain personal counsel for required interviews with the IG. The vice chancellors are valued key employees, whom CUNY expends great effort to recruit and retain.

EXPLANATION: Pursuant to an ongoing investigation, the IG has required and is requiring certain vice chancellors to submit to a recorded interview under oath, and has advised that the vice chancellors may bring personal counsel if they wish. This interview is pursuant to the IG’s statutory authority to “require any officer or employee in a covered agency to answer questions concerning any matter related to the performance of his or her official duties.” Refusal to answer questions in an IG interview under oath subjects an employee to removal from employment.

In the ordinary course of business, when CUNY employees are sued for conduct occurring in the course of their employment, the State (for senior colleges) or City (for community colleges) will represent and indemnify, including representing them at deposition or trial when they are required to testify under oath. CUNY is aware of no evidence of wrongdoing on the part of any current vice chancellors.

Pursuant to its broad authority to “govern and administer all educational units of the city university,” NYS Education Law §6204.1, the Board has the power to authorize reimbursement to the vice chancellors for their reasonable expenses incurred to retain personal counsel of their choice for these interviews and any follow-up by the IG. The Board hereby approves reimbursement of up to $25,000 each for such expenses, and if expenses exceed $25,000, the individual may return to the Board for further consideration. Requests must be submitted to the General Counsel and include appropriate documentation that the services were performed.

If a court finds that a vice chancellor has engaged in wrongdoing with respect to the actions that are the subject of the IG’s examination, the University will seek the return of the reimbursement.

NO. 13. THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK - APPOINTMENT OF DR. JOY CONNOLLY AS INTERIM PRESIDENT OF THE CUNY GRADUATE CENTER:

WHEREAS, Dr. Joy Connolly’s superb service as Provost of the Graduate Center of the City University of New York since 2016 and before that as Dean for the Humanities at New York University from 2012-2016 has given her administrative and leadership experience; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Connolly’s recent promotion to University Distinguished Professor of Classics, her three books, and more than thirty articles in the field of Roman literature, philosophy, and political thought are evidence of the scholarly achievements and standing we expect of the leader of the Graduate Center; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Connolly is a well-known advocate for doctoral education and for the important role of the humanities in society and has secured over two million dollars for the Graduate Center from the Mellon Foundation to support her work in transforming doctoral education and linking it to the public good; and

WHEREAS, Dr. Connolly has led the development of the website, Sum, which features the discoveries and creative work of faculty and students at CUNY, has overseen the transfer of the ASRC from City College to the Graduate Center, and has presided over the expansion of the number of master’s degrees offered by the Graduate Center; now therefore be it

RESOLVED, That the Board of Trustees of the City University of New York approve the appointment of Joy Connolly as the Interim President of the CUNY Graduate Center, effective December 10, 2018.

EXPLANATION: Interim Chancellor Rabinowitz is recommending Distinguished Professor Joy Connolly as Interim President of the CUNY Graduate Center. Dr. Connolly earned her AB in Classics from Princeton University and her PhD in Classical Studies from the University of Pennsylvania. She held tenure track positions at the University of Washington, Stanford University, and New York University before joining the Graduate Center. She is currently serving as Provost of the Graduate Center.

Moved by Vice Chairperson Schwartz and seconded by Trustee Berger. Resolutions 12 and 13 were unanimously approved.

Moved by Vice Chairperson Schwartz and seconded by Trustee O’Donnell-Tormey, the reconvened public session was adjourned at 8:06 p.m.
