

WHO? ME? WHY NOT ALL OF US AT CUNY?

EDUCATION AT THE HEART OF THE SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT AGENDA

Join us at this unique session with City Tech's own Farjana Shati, the 2018 CUNY Youth Ambassador and Priya Joshi, Research Officer for UNESCO's Global Education Monitoring (GEM) Report team for an exciting conversation on global issues in education and the role that students play in realizing a sustainable future for all. The presentation will focus on why education is at the heart of the sustainable development goals and highlight the vital role that students and youth play in holding governments responsible for equitable quality education
