Danielle Dimitrov, Esq.

Interim Executive Director of Student Services, College of Staten Island

Danielle Dimitrov, Esq., is currently the Interim Executive Director of Student Services for the College of Staten Island (CSI). Within the Division of Student and Enrollment Services, she oversees the areas of Judicial Affairs/Student Conduct, Health and Wellness, the Center for Student Accessibility, Veteran Support Services, and is a divisional liaison to the residence halls. Additionally, Ms. Dimitrov chairs several college-wide committees that address student needs and concerns.

Prior to this role, since joining CSI in 2010, Ms. Dimitrov served as the College’s Chief Diversity Officer and Title IX Coordinator. For eight years she monitored and implemented CUNY’s nondiscrimination and sexual misconduct policies at the College and worked closely with campus partners to help ensure that CSI is an inclusive, welcoming, and safe learning and working environment for students, faculty, and staff. Ms. Dimitrov will continue and expand her work within the campus community in her capacity Interim Executive Director of Student Services.

While she was a law school student Ms. Dimitrov interned with HIV/AIDS organizations in Manhattan and Cape Town, South Africa. Prior to attending law school, Ms. Dimitrov was a health educator who focused primarily on women’s health issues as a senior writer/editor for Planned Parenthood Federation of America. During this time she was also an adjunct faculty member at CUNY LaGuardia Community College. Ms. Dimitrov holds a J.D. from the State University of New York at Buffalo Law School, an M.A. in Health Education from New York University, and a B.A. in Psychology from the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.
