INTRODUCING
CUNY Unlimited
A Credential Program for Students with Intellectual Disabilities

FACULTY WANTED!

BACKGROUND
CUNY Unlimited is a credential program in development through a grant partnership with the University of Rochester, AHRC NYC, and the NYC Department of Education. Students currently enrolled in model demonstration programs at five CUNY campuses prepare for employment by participating in academic courses, co-curricular activities, and vocational experiences aligned with their interests.

GRANT CAMPUS

FACULTY FEEDBACK
“Students have consistently come into my class ready to apply themselves and learn. Their level of contribution often exceeds that of other students. It is an absolute pleasure each time.”

“These students have been very bright and engaged; they have added so much value to my classes in thriving in the classroom, and have raised the bar for all their peers.”

HOW CAN I GET INVOLVED?
• Host a student in your class
• Engage in professional development opportunities, including Universal Design for Learning training
• Provide feedback on program experiences

More questions? A faculty committee comprised of one member from each grant campus is available as a resource to all interested faculty.
