You are being asked to participate in a research study because <explain why the participant is eligible to participate.>

Purpose:
The purpose of this research study is to <accurately explain the purpose of this research study in a few simple sentences, using lay language while avoiding any technical terms, and the reason why one might or might not want to participate.>

Disclosure of Financial Interests: [include only when financial conflict of interest exists]:

<Insert sponsor name> is providing financial support to <insert name of principal investigator and/or CUNY institution> for conducting this research study. <Insert study personnel with conflict’s name> has received payment from <insert sponsor’s name> of <insert a range> as <explain why, such as advisor, lecturer, board member, etc.>
Procedures:
If you volunteer to participate in this research study, we will ask you to do the following:

- List procedures in chronological order and include:
  - List and describe each procedure in lay language, avoiding any technical terms.
  - For each procedure, state time and location where procedure will take place and include approximate time commitment.

- Use of tables is strongly recommended for complex studies involving multiple visits and procedures.

- For research involving surveys or interviews, please be sure to describe the types of questions you will ask.

Audio Recording/Video Recording/Photographs: [include if applicable with appropriate heading]:
- If procedures will be audio or video recorded or photographed, be sure to indicate which procedures will be recorded and for what purpose. For example, “To ensure the accuracy of our findings, Procedure A will be audio recorded for later transcription and review by the research team. You can still/cannot participate in this study if you do not consent to audio recording/video recording/photographs.”

Time Commitment:
Your participation in this research study is expected to last for a total of <specify study duration>.

Potential Risks or Discomforts:

- List and describe all foreseeable risks or discomforts that the participant may experience due to procedures described above in lay language, avoiding any technical terms. Risks should be described in relation to a specific procedure.

- Use of tables is strongly recommended for complex studies involving multiple procedures.

- If there are risks that might cause the researcher to withdraw the participant from participation in the research, please describe the circumstances under which this may occur; and describe the procedure for withdrawing the participant.

- [FOR GREATER THAN MINIMAL RISK RESEARCH STUDIES ONLY]: Research procedures described above may involve risks that cannot be anticipated at this time. If we learn of anything that may affect your decision to participate, we will inform you as soon as possible. You will then have a chance to reconsider your continuing participation in the research.
Potential Benefits:

- <Describe any potential benefits to the participant. If the participant will not directly benefit, state, "You will not directly benefit from your participation in this research study.">*

- <Describe expected benefits to science or society in lay language, avoiding any technical terms.>*

Alternatives to Participation:

[NOTE: This section is ONLY required for: i) research that involves treatment (behavioral, physical, or otherwise); OR ii) research for which participants are recruited from student subject pools].

[For research that involves treatment:] <Describe any alternative therapeutic, diagnostic, or preventive procedures that should be considered before the participant decides whether to participate in the research. If applicable, explain why any standard of care procedures are being withheld. If there are no efficacious alternatives, state that an alternative is not to participate in the research. Also, clearly state that the subject always has the option not to participate in this study.>*

[For research involving recruitment from student subject pool:] <Describe alternatives to participating in the research study (e.g., to write a paper or participate in another research study to receive course credit). This section should include only those alternatives previously approved by the CUNY UI-IRB as part of the IRB application for the subject pool(s). Please contact the individual(s) responsible for administration of the subject pool(s) if you have any questions about approved alternatives. Also, clearly state that the subject always has the option not to participate in this study.>*

Costs

[NOTE: This section is ONLY required when subjects will bear some costs due to participation in research].

<Describe any costs to subjects that may result from their participation in research.>*

Payment for Participation:

<Describe any payment that the participants may receive for their participation, whether in cash or in kind, and indicate when the payment will be made, OR state: You will not receive any payment for participating in this research study.>*

Research Related Injury:

[NOTE: This section is ONLY required for research studies that pose greater than minimal risk to participants].

<Provide an explanation as to the availability of medical treatment in the case of research-related injury, including who will pay for the treatment and whether other financial compensation is available.>*
New Information:
You will be notified about any new information regarding this study that may affect your willingness to participate in a timely manner.

Confidentiality:
We will make our best efforts to maintain confidentiality of any information that is collected during this research study, and that can identify you. We will disclose this information only with your permission or as required by law.

We will protect your confidentiality by <describe how you will safeguard identifiable participant data, including any coding procedures, where data will be stored, who will have access to the data, etc.>

<If you are a mandated reporter, and this research study may result in information that you are mandated to report, describe the possibility of such disclosures here.>

The research team, authorized CUNY staff, <the research sponsor (include only when applicable)>, and government agencies that oversee this type of research may have access to research data and records in order to monitor the research. Research records provided to authorized, non-CUNY individuals will not contain identifiable information about you. Publications and/or presentations that result from this study will not identify you by name.

Participants’ Rights:

• Your participation in this research study is entirely voluntary. If you decide not to participate, there will be no penalty to you, and you will not lose any benefits to which you are otherwise entitled.

• [For research that will recruit CUNY students in CUNY classrooms:] Your participation or non-participation in this study will in no way affect your grades, your academic standing with CUNY, or any other status in the College.

• [For research that will recruit employees at a specific institution:] Your participation or non-participation in this study will in no way affect your employment at <insert employer here.>

• You can decide to withdraw your consent and stop participating in the research at any time, without any penalty.

Questions, Comments or Concerns:
If you have any questions, comments or concerns about the research, you can talk to one of the following researchers:

• <List names, titles, and contact information for each of the researchers, as appropriate.>

If you have questions about your rights as a research participant, or you have comments or concerns that you would like to discuss with someone other than the researchers, please call the CUNY...
Research Compliance Administrator at 646-664-8918 or email HRPP@cuny.edu. Alternatively, you may write to:
